With its white and crim - son bars; And nev - - er-more a trai - - tors foot Shall tram - ple on its stars.

trai - - tors foot Shall tram - ple on its stars.

2. Let the beau - teous form of Free - dom Born in bat - tle, fire and flood;
3. Like the waves of an - gry o - cean, Bea - ting on a roc - ky coast;
4. By the bat - tles of our fa - thers, By the blessings which they won;
5. Let that flag which trailed at Sump - ter, Float once more a - gainst the sky;

Be (by trai - tors hands now ra - vished) Re - baptised in trai - tors blood.
Comes the tread of north - ern free - men, In an o - ver - whelm - ing host.
Let us pledge e - ter - nal feal - ty To the land of WASH - ING - TON!
And beneath its star - ry bor - ders, We will swear to live and die.

rit: ad lib:

Shout then for the loved and free; U - nion, God and Li - - ber - ty. Chor.
Sworn to guard the fami - ly tree; U - nion, God and Li - ber - ty. „
Let our war - cry ev - er be U - nion, God and Li - ber - ty. „
Swear to bear it on - ward, free To U - nion, God and Li - - ber - ty. „
